

Writing Bingo

Complete as many lines of the writing bingo sheet as possible. When you have completed a task, colour in or tick the box. How many can you complete?

Make a card for someone you love.	Write a story about an imaginary friend.	Create a poster to persuade someone to visit your favourite place.	Try making something and write a set of instructions.	Describe your perfect summer day.
Write about your best day ever. If you can't think of one, why don't you make one up?	Draw and write a comic including speech or thought bubbles for your characters.	Write about what life would be like if you never went to school.	Imagine you could invent a new machine. What would it be? Draw a diagram and explain it.	Create a funny poem or story to make your friends laugh.
You're on the beach and you find a fossil. Write a story about what might've happened to the creature.	Create a fact file about your favourite creature or topic that you are interested in.	FREE WRITE Write something of your choice.	Write a song about the summer.	Should the summer holiday be longer? Write a letter to your teacher to explain your thoughts.
Make a sign that would be helpful in your home.	Write a story with a happy ending.	Celebrate one of your favourite words by turning it into an acrostic poem.	Write a recipe for a snack you love to eat.	Create an information booklet about something you enjoy doing.
Write a poem about one of your favourite things.	Write a letter to your teacher from last year, or your new teacher to tell them more about yourself.	If a pet could email its owner, what would the email say?	Design and write a postcard to someone you care about, telling them about your summer.	You have found a magic wand. What would you do with it?

Name: _____